This is a very handy thing, as one man can till up bags by using this holder, as well as two men can, as it is constructed in a manner so it can be fastened anywhere, or to anything. It holds the bag open to the full extent of its mouth; it also can be altered to lit any size bags, and has pivoted hooks which can be let loose to turn, to let the bag come off easy; and it is as simple as it is effective, and it will sell at sight. Now, I offer this patent for isale, either all the States and Territories east of the Rocky Mountains, to one party or parties, or by States or Counties. Remember, you will get the exclusive right to manufacture and sell this device, at your own price, for the term of seventeen years.
